

Putting on Socks

Horses can have a variety of distinguishable leg markings, too. Try your hand at drawing on the patterns identified below. Put one sock on each leg.

Draw a Coronet Marking
(a thin white band just above the hoof)

Draw a Pastern Marking
(a thick white band that extends from the hoof to just below the fetlock)

Draw a Sock
(a white marking that extends from the hoof to a third of the way up the cannon bone)

Draw a Half-stocking
(white coloring that extends from the hoof to half way up the cannon bone)

Draw a Full Stocking
(white coloring that extends from the hoof to just below the knee)

Draw a Heel Marking
(a blotch of white just above the back of the hoof)
